

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

PUBLISHED DAILY, AT NO. 21 WATER

STREET, BY BEALS & GREENE.—CHARLES GORDON GREENE, EDITOR.

VOLUME IX. NO. 149.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,
MARTIN VAN BUREN.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

POETRY.

THE HOME OF THE HEART.

O 'tis not the cottage,—the dearest on earth,
That first my heart ent'red me with birth:
The sweet little home that gave me birth,
Through scenes uncounted, 'midst strangers I roam,
With naught to remind me of childhood's sweet home.
Home, sweet home!—

O nought here reminds me of childhood's sweet home.
No woodbine that used o'er that cottage to creep,
No willow tree, 'neath which my fond father sleep,
No green grass plot, no white wattle fence,
Nought, nought here reminds me of childhood's sweet home.
Home, sweet home!—

O nought here reminds me of childhood's sweet home.
Yet here's deep affection the wond'r to bless,
A mother's fond welcome, a sister's caress,—
Far dearer than cottage or proud princely dome,
For home's where the heart is, and that is sweet home!
Home, sweet home!

O home's where the heart is,—O this is sweet home!

OUR BURIAL PLACE.—By the author of "Redwood."

* * * * *

Every little mound I tread upon in this burial-place
recalls some social or individual history. From my childhood I knew those that slept beneath it—the rich
and the poor—the master and servant—the good and
bad. Here lie two enemies, side by side, their coffins touching,—who could not eat at the same table, breathe beneath the same roof, or worship God in the same church. Where are now their strife, their unbridled passions, their unrelenting hate, their everlasting feuds?

Underneath this stone lies J—— M——, Justice of Peace at all times and places,—a little man,
almost as quiet in life as in death, who never made a brawl, and,—notwithstanding the claims of universal magistracy set forth in his epitaph,—never I believe settled one. Here, side by side in three successive summers, were interred three sisters. How beautiful,
how lovely and beloved they were in life, how desolate they left their widowed mother, how each was mourned by the survivor, their epitaphs but half
told; for I well remember when general sorrow the village procession followed one after another to the insatiable grave. Grief is still here.

Here lies one, joyous in life, and most courageous in
death, who was brought home, wasted and suffering,
from foreign countries, to breathe his last sigh in his native land. The last glimmerings of the summer twilight were fading from the valley, when his brothers
brought his body into the burial-place of his fathers.—
For long and anxious months his parents had prayed and wept for him, but when they laid him among his departed kindred, the voice of praise and thankfulness, and not the cries of grief, was heard. His gentle mother fills the next grave!

We buried our good old Colonel — here. He was of the old regime, of those times, when the gentleman did in his secret soul believe that he was made of better clay than the 'fellow.' Col. — was the last relic among us of anti-revolutionary and anti-
republican days; the last surviving associate and boon
companion of those three notable gentlemen of Connecticut river, real Demigods in their day, but styled by their profane descendants "River-gods." The Colonel was loyal to the King of England, and a tory
to his last day, because he believed that orders were Heaven's first law; but as the wave of the multitude
rose and covered one elevation after another, he submitted with christian meekness, believing the people
were made kings by the judgment of Heaven upon the rebellion of man. Amidst the familiarity and rusticity
of our village life, the Colonel maintained his punctilious
politeness; and I remember, the ruling passion strong
in death, his last words: they were addressed to a lady weeping over him: 'Pray, madam,' he said,
'be seated.' He was a good man and true, and there where rank is graduated by merit, where there are angels and archangels, he may find himself exalted far above some to whom he would have given precedence
here.

Near the Colonel lies a fair specimen of the old regime of the softer sex: one who never dreamed of these degenerate days, when women explain the mechaniques Celestes of La Place, and recite the political economy of nations, but who, according to the elder orthodoxy, spent her three-score years and ten in making pastry, concocting syrups and sweet-meats, and
exploring the culinary arena. Her ruling passion, too, was dominant in extremities. I remember the night her husband died she took one of his attendants into her pantry to descend on the size, color, and quality of her pickles. When they came out, he was gone!

A little farther on, for here—shame to us! the colored people are laid apart,—we buried 'old Jo'. He would, if he had dared, have protested against this location, for Jo was an 'extra exclusive' in life, and on his death-bed gave his apparel to my friend —, whom
he considered the first gentleman in the country, saying: 'Pray accept my clothes, Sir, for I can't bear the thoughts any nigger should wear them!'

And here is J.'s grave, —, the fiddler.—
How often have young hearts, as well as feet danced to the sound of J.'s fiddle! He was the Apollo of all the country round. We thought his violin might have realized the poetic imagination,—created a soul under the ribs of death? Poor J.—that fiddle was most dear to him. He loved it first, last, and best, and when he was actually dying, he begged his attendant to hold his hand, that he might move the bow over the strings. Like the swan, he expired in his own music.

And here lies one whose worth is truly recorded on this stone by one of those who set it here to express
the honor and gratitude they owed her. No praise
could exceed her due, who filled a long life with usefulness, and met her death with dignity and submission,
saying, as she bowed her head, 'This is the last stroke,
and the best!'

ELIZABETH FREEMAN,

known by the name of

MUMBET.

Died Dec. 28, 1829. Her supposed age was 85 years.

She was born a slave, and remained a slave for nearly
thirty years: she could neither read nor write,
yet in her own sphere, she had no superior
nor equal: she neither wasted time nor
property; she never violated a trust,
nor failed to perform a duty. In every situation of domestic
trial, she was the most efficent helper, and
the tenderest
friend.

GOOD MOTHER, FAREWELL!

Here lies one, albeit our village Doctor, who breath-
ed around him an atmosphere of health and cheerfulness.
He withheld his drugs, and gave us smiles and pleasant words, which, as Scripture tells us, are 'health-

TUESDAY

MORNING, NOVEMBER 24, 1835.

PRICE $6

PER ANN. IN ADVANCE.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.
FOR PRESIDENT,
MARTIN VAN BUREN.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

POETRY.

THE HOME OF THE HEART.

O 'tis not the cottage,—the dearest on earth,
That first my heart ent'red me with birth:
The sweet little home that gave me birth,
Through scenes uncounted, 'midst strangers I roam,
With naught to remind me of childhood's sweet home.
Home, sweet home!—

O nought here reminds me of childhood's sweet home.
No woodbine that used o'er that cottage to creep,
No willow tree, 'neath which my fond father sleep,
No green grass plot, no white wattle fence,
Nought, nought here reminds me of childhood's sweet home.
Home, sweet home!—

O nought here reminds me of childhood's sweet home.
Yet here's deep affection the wond'r to bless,
A mother's fond welcome, a sister's caress,—
Far dearer than cottage or proud princely dome,
For home's where the heart is, and that is sweet home!
Home, sweet home!

O home's where the heart is,—O this is sweet home!

OUR BURIAL PLACE.—By the author of "Redwood."

* * * * *

Every little mound I tread upon in this burial-place
recalls some social or individual history. From my childhood I knew those that slept beneath it—the rich
and the poor—the master and servant—the good and
bad. Here lie two enemies, side by side, their
coffins touching,—who could not eat at the same table, breathe beneath the same roof, or worship God in the same church. Where are now their strife, their unbridled passions, their unrelenting hate, their everlasting feuds?

Underneath this stone lies J—— M——, Justice of Peace at all times and places,—a little man,
almost as quiet in life as in death, who never made a
brawl, and,—notwithstanding the claims of universal
magistracy set forth in his epitaph,—never I believe settled one. Here, side by side in three successive
summers, were interred three sisters. How beautiful,
how lovely and beloved they were in life, how deso-
late they left their widowed mother, how each was
mourned by the survivor, their epitaphs but half
told; for I well remember when general sorrow the
village procession followed one after another to the insatiable grave. Grief is still here.

Here lies one, joyous in life, and most courageous in
death, who was brought home, wasted and suffering,
from foreign countries, to breathe his last sigh in his native land. The last glimmerings of the summer twi-
light were fading from the valley, when his brothers
brought his body into the burial-place of his fathers.—
For long and anxious months his parents had prayed and
wept for him, but when they laid him among his departed kindred, the voice of praise and thankfulness, and
not the cries of grief, was heard. His gentle mother fills the next grave!

We buried our good old Colonel — here. He was of the old regime, of those times, when the gentleman did in his secret soul believe that he was made
of better clay than the 'fellow.' Col. — was the last relic among us of anti-revolutionary and anti-
republican days; the last surviving associate and boon
companion of those three notable gentlemen of Connecticut river, real Demigods in their day, but styled
by their profane descendants "River-gods." The Colonel was loyal to the King of England, and a tory
to his last day, because he believed that orders were Heaven's first law; but as the wave of the multitude
rose and covered one elevation after another, he submitted with christian meekness, believing the people
were made kings by the judgment of Heaven upon the
rebellion of man. Amidst the familiarity and rusticity
of our village life, the Colonel maintained his punctilious
politeness; and I remember, the ruling passion strong
in death, his last words: they were addressed to a lady weeping over him: 'Pray, madam,' he said,
'be seated.'

He was a good man and true, and there
where rank is graduated by merit, where there are angels and archangels, he may find himself exalted far
above some to whom he would have given precedence
here.

Near the Colonel lies a fair specimen of the old
regime of the softer sex: one who never dreamed of
these degenerate days, when women explain the mechaniques Celestes of La Place, and recite the political
economy of nations, but who, according to the elder
orthodoxy, spent her three-score years and ten in
making pastry, concocting syrups and sweet-meats, and
exploring the culinary arena. Her ruling passion, too,
was dominant in extremities. I remember the night her
husband died she took one of his attendants into her
pantry to descend on the size, color, and quality of her
pickles. When they came out, he was gone!

A little farther on, for here—shame to us! the colored people are laid apart,—we buried 'old Jo'. He would, if he had dared, have protested against this location, for Jo was an 'extra exclusive' in life, and on his death-bed gave his apparel to my friend —, whom
he considered the first gentleman in the country, saying: 'Pray accept my clothes, Sir, for I can't bear the
thoughts any nigger should wear them!'

And here is J.'s grave, —, the fiddler.—
How often have young hearts, as well as feet danced to the sound of J.'s fiddle! He was the Apollo of all the country round. We thought his violin
might have realized the poetic imagination,—created
a soul under the ribs of death? Poor J.—that fiddle was most dear to him. He loved it first, last,
and best, and when he was actually dying, he begged his
attendant to hold his hand, that he might move the bow over the strings. Like the swan, he expired in his own music.

And here lies one whose worth is truly recorded on
this stone by one of those who set it here to express
the honor and gratitude they owed her. No praise
could exceed her due, who filled a long life with usefulness, and met her death with dignity and submission,
saying, as she bowed her head, 'This is the last stroke,
and the best!'

ELIZABETH FREEMAN,

known by the name of

MUMBET.

Died Dec. 28, 1829. Her supposed age was 85 years.

She was born a slave, and remained a slave for nearly
thirty years: she could neither read nor write,
yet in her own sphere, she had no superior
nor equal: she neither wasted time nor
property; she never violated a trust,
nor failed to perform a duty. In
every situation of domestic
trial, she was the most
efficent helper, and
the tenderest
friend.

GOOD MOTHER, FAREWELL!

Here lies one, albeit our village Doctor, who breath-
ed around him an atmosphere of health and cheerfulness.
He withheld his drugs, and gave us smiles and
pleasant words, which, as Scripture tells us, are 'health-

to the bones,' and so we lived to lay him here, whom neither the skill of his brethren nor the love of our stricken hearts could save.

And this is the grave of our good Pastor, who survived a generation of his flock, and after preaching to them and to their children for the space of fifty-nine years, (as his epitaph tell us) was laid to rest among them. He was a theologian of the New-England school. His creed was as unchangeable as his fashion of dress, and that never altered a thread. To his dying day, he wore his three-cornered hat, his kneebuckles, and shoe buckles, and ribbed stockings snugly fitting his well-preserved leg, which disdained the levelling pantaloons. We have hinted at the inflexibility of his faith—but there ended his sternness. He might have counted on his fingers those of his flock, who, according to his theories, could hope to escape the wrath to come, but never a scape-grace among them died, but he found some loop-hole for his charity. His faith was a portion of his inheritance—his charity was breathed into his soul by the spirit of God. Here he sleeps in the midst of his people, of the children whom he dedicated, the young whom he joined in holy bonds, the wandering whom he reclaimed, the faithful whom he encouraged, the old whom he took counsel. May they all appear among the redeemed, when the grave shall give back its dead! 112

BOARD WANTED, about the first of December, for a young gentleman with his wife and child—he would like a furnished front chamber, with bed room adjoining, in a respectable family and in a pleasant part of the city; one would be preferred where there are no other boarders. A line addressed to C, through the Post Office will be attended to immediately. 121

BOARDERS WANTED.—A number of single genlemen—also, a gentleman and his wife, can be accommodated with Board, on application at No 13 Washington Place
Fort Hill. 110

PERFUMERY.—A large and superior assortment of Perfumery consisting of Cologne, Lavender, Florida, and Honey Waters—Fancy and Shaving Soaps, Hair Oils, &c., & etc received and for sale cheap by LEWIS & CO., 118 State street. 116

LOST.—Lost between Russia wharf and Mansion House,
Milk street, Friday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, a green
French Silk Umbrella, with a brass stick and light handle.—
Whoever has found the same shall be suitably rewarded. 117

NOTICE.—The person who called at my office on Monday last, and took the key of house No 47 High street, is requested to return the same immediately, and save both parties trouble. CHAS. MCINTIER, 5 Exchange street. 118

BOARDS, SHOCKS, &c.—20,000 feet prime dry Boards—240 large molasses Shocks and Heads—90 nests
of superior Molasses Casks—for sale by DANIEL DESHON, 6 Long wharf. 121

LANE & CROOME—manufacturers of Cabinet Furniture—Mahogany Chairs—Sofas, &c., 437 Washington street opposite the Washington bank. 122

N. B.—Orders solicited and faithfully executed.
121

DRUGS, PAINTS & DYE STUFFS.—
ROGERS, DEVENS & CO., have for sale at No 5 & 6 Granite Stores, Commercial wharf—
10,000 lbs pure No 1 & 2 Lead, ground in Oil
5,000 lbs dev Lead
22 bbls English and Dutch Linseed Oil
10 casks French Yellow
10 do American do
12 do Venetian Red
20 bbls Spirits Turpentine
50 do Whiting
10 cases English Refined Borax
4 cases Cream Tartar
150 bbls ground Die Woods
20 do Alum
15 do Copperas
15 do Blue Vitrol
1000 lbs Nut Galls
40 lbs Chalk Green
10 do Rose Pink
2000 lbs Castile Soap
50 do Paint Brushes, assorted.
Together with a general assortment of Drugs and Medicines
on the most favorable terms.

Country Dealers and Agents are respectfully invited to call.
R. D. & Co. are also agents for Jones' American Lucifer Matches, which they offer by the case or single, gills, at the manufacturer's prices—their superiority over all other matches will be tested only by the use of them. 121

5 DOLLARS REWARD.—The store of the subscribers was feloniously entered on the night of the 6th inst., and the following goods stolen therefrom, viz.:—4 or 5 ps and several parts ps of black hair seating, of 15, 16, 17, and 18 ins wide—1 ps of 22 yards extra finest mixed cambric—1 ps of 10 yds of a very stout quality—some Bandanna hanks marked F A—pr a few colored gloves, &c. &c.—
The above reward will be paid for the apprehension of the perpetrators. 121

REMOVAL.—E. R. BROADERS has removed his Periodical establishment to store 147 Washington street, opposite the Old South Church, where he will continue the same, in connection with the general Bookselling and Publishing business. 122

PANTALOONS AND VESTS.—Gentlemen in want
of these articles are invited to call at WYMAN'S, Merchandise Row, opposite the Post Office, where they will find the largest and most fashionable assortments of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, suitable for the season, on the most reasonable terms. Call and see. 122

STEAMBOAT LINE
FROM BOSTON TO GARDINER—Arrangement for August

The new Steamer PORTLAND, Capt Jabez Howes, master, will leave Union wharf, Portland, for Boston, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 7 o'clock, P.M., and Foster's wharf, Boston, for Portland, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 5 o'clock PM.

The steamer McDONOUGH, Nath'l Kimball, master, will leave Union wharf, Portland, for Bath and Gardner, every Wednesday and Sunday, at 8 o'clock AM—and will leave Gardner for Bath and Portland, every Monday and Friday at 9 o'clock AM.

FARE—From Boston to Gardner $3.00
" " " Portland 2.00
" " " Portland to Bath 1.50 and Found,
" " " Gardner 2.00

Agen's—J. B. SMITH, Boston—CHARLES MOODY, Portland—T. G. JEWETT, Gardner.

Buses will be in readiness to take the passengers from Gardner, Hallowell and Augusta on the arrival of the boat—and will leave Augusta and Hallowell, for Gardner, on the morning of the McDonough sailing.

BOSTON AND HINGHAM.

Once a day only for the remainder of the season.

The Steamboat GEN'L LINCOLN,
Capt George Beau,
Will, on and after MONDAY, the 2d, of November, go but one trip a day, leaving Hingham at 8 o'clock A. M., and Foster's wharf, Boston, at 3 o'clock P. M.

Pare 37 cents.—Carriages will be in readiness, on the arrival of the boat at Hingham, to convey passengers to any part of that and most of the neighboring towns.

N. B. Passengers, by applying at the Captain's Office, can be conveyed to any part of the city for 12½ cents.

DAVID WHITON, Agent.

Hingham, Oct 29, 1855.

BOSTON AND HARTFORD PACKETS.

The Regular Line of Packets between the above cities, will consist of the following vessels:

Schooner ANN, — Captain Flower,
CHINA, — — Churchill,
LYDIA, — Mills,
MARY, — — — — —
ECHO, — — — — —

These vessels are of the first class, and bulk expressly for the trade. The captains have been long engaged in the business, and are experienced pilots. Every exertion will be made to ensure despatch and safety. Lines worth of patronage. It is intended, after the 10th March, one vessel shall sail every Saturday, from the head of Central wharf, south side, and one from Hartford every Wednesday. Terms of freight apply to JOSHUA SEARS, No 14 Long wharf, HARTSHORN & ELLIS, No 7 Central wharf, or the Capstan, on board, head of said wharf, south side, and in Hartford to THOMAS K. BRUCE & CO.

J. SLEEPER,
SUCCESSION TO J. MARINER,
No 6 Congress Square,
HAS just opened and offers for sale, an extensive assortment of seasonal Goods, adapted to his line of business, among which are—

SUPER BLUE
BLACK
BROWN
OLIVE
GREEN
CLARET
ADELAIDE
MELICHERY
INVIS. GREEN
DAHLIA
DRAB and
MIXED
SUPER BLUE
BLACK
BROWN
DRAB
BUCKSKIN
HERRING BONE
CORDED

Plain and figured Velvets, do do Satins, do do Silks, do Valencias, white and buff Cassimeres, Tibet Toilets, Mar-selle, &c. Festings.

Blue, black, brown and green Goat's Hair and imitation Camlets of the best qualities.

Petersham, Harrington, Linn Skins, heavy double milled Souton Cloths, of various shades, and of best qualities.

Garments made to order, in the best style, on very favorable terms.

6

JOSEPH STARK, Draper and Tailor, informs his friends and Customers, that he has opened his store, No 43 Congress st, where he offers for sale Cloths, Cassimeres & Vestings, of the first quality, for cash—which he intends to make up into garments, on moderate terms, to any gentleman who may please to favor him with a call.

N. B. Those gentlemen who wish, can furnish their own cloths—and all garments are warranted to fit and to be made in a workmanlike manner.

is cosm—of

PATENT SOAP STONE CEMENT.—The Subscribers have been requested to furnish for the State of Massachusetts for the sale of this Article, and are now ready to receive Orders. Its superiority over every other Cement that has been introduced will be proved on the inspection of the certificates now in the hands of the Agents, ROGERS, DEVENS & CO, Druggists and Paint Dealers, No 5 & 6 Commercial wharf, Boston.

These vessels are of the first class, and bulk expressly for the trade. The captains have been long engaged in the business, and are experienced pilots. Every exertion will be made to ensure despatch and safety. Lines worth of patronage. It is intended, after the 10th March, one vessel shall sail every Saturday, from the head of Central wharf, south side, and one from Hartford every Wednesday. Terms of freight apply to JOSHUA SEARS, No 14 Long wharf, HARTSHORN & ELLIS, No 7 Central wharf, or the Capstan, on board, head of said wharf, south side, and in Hartford to THOMAS K. BRUCE & CO.

27

HARDWARE, NAILS AND HOLLOWWARE.

RICE & LIVING, Nos 54 Kirby and 72, 80 & 84 Water st, have received by the late arrivals from Liverpool, a very extensive assortment of

SHIEFFIELD & BIRMINGHAM HARDWARE, adapted to the Fall Trade, consisting in part of the following:

Cast Steel Composition & DOCTORS Knives and Forks Pen, Pocket, Shoe, Buck- KNIVES, Iron, Bread and Dresser Knives
Rodgers' Eliot's, RAZORS, Wade and Butcher's Barber's Scissors and Shears Sheep Shears Cast Steel Pit, SAWES, Cross Cut, Hand, SAWES, and Iron Back Files, all kinds Chisels and Gouges Plane Irons Hemming & Son's Needles Bundles and Pound Pins Snuffer, Tea and Bread Trays Steel Cutters Brass Goods, all kinds Spiked and Nailed Gimblets Shoe Thread Box Rules Iron Compasses Norfolk, Bright, LATICES, Beaded & Brass Iron Candlesticks Brass do Cap Wire, Nos 4 & 6 Braces and Bits Awls and Tacks Iron and Steel Squares Brass and Warming Copper Pans Tenter Hooks Rivets

They have also on hand of AMERICAN MANUFACTURE.

First quality Hollow Ware Looking Glasses Keene & Western Glass Hammers and Hatchets Common & Fancy Bellows Sleigh Lells Dutch Skates British Brick British Cup & Wrapping Paper Plane Brass Nails Cotton, Wool Cards & Cattle Brushes all kinds Augers Brads and Tacks Slates and Pencils Razor and Penknife Hones Oil Stone Glue Twine Adzes Hammers Hammans' HAMMANS' AXES Saws Blacking

Boston, Oct 29, 1855. epw—2aw6m 630

NORTON & COOLEY, Counsellors at Law, Bangor, Me.

MILFORD P. NORTON, GEO. W. COOLEY.
MILFORD P. NORTON, GEO. W. COOLEY.

THE SUBSCRIBERS have entered into a Copartnership under the firm of EVANS & COOLEY, Counsellors at Law, Bangor, Me.

Refer to Hon. Peter Sprague, Messrs C. G. & F. C. Loring, A. & A. Lawrence, Chandler & Howard, BOSTON.

BOSTON, Oct 29, 1855. epw—2aw6m 630

WASHINGTON NATIONAL MONUMENT. The undersigned having been appointed agents for the STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS, to collect contributions for the Washington National Monument Society, respectfully give notice, that they are making all necessary arrangements to prosecute their Agency, and will be prepared shortly to call upon Citizens of Boston, to receive what they may be disposed to give towards erecting (at the seat of the General Government), a splendid Monument to the memory of Washington.

A detail of the plan of the Society's operations will soon be made public. Due notice will also be given of the appointment of Sub-agents in the country towns. LIGHT & BOSTON, 1 Cornhill, Boston.

Oct 8, 1854.

Extract from a certificate of Mr James Comstock, editor of the Ballston Spa Gazette—"For several years past Mrs Comstock has been afflicted with an unusually obstinate Dyspepsia, attended with a great degree of acidity of the stomach, and redundancy of bile. For several months past she has taken Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, and has experienced more benefit from them than she has ever received from any medicine. I can with confidence recommend them to the public."

"I certify that I have been well acquainted with William Sears, now of the village of Ballston Spa, for more than thirty years. He has through life maintained a fair reputation. His character for truth and general integrity stands high. Indeed I have never heard it impeached." JOHN W. TAYLOR.

Ballston Spa, Oct 6th, 1854."

"I have known Mr Willard Sears for more than thirty years, having resided most of that time in the same town with him, and during that period he has sustained a character without reproach." S. YOUNG.

Extract from a certificate of Mr James Comstock, editor of the Ballston Spa Gazette—"For several years past Mrs Comstock has been afflicted with an unusually obstinate Dyspepsia, attended with a great degree of acidity of the stomach, and redundancy of bile. For several months past she has taken Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, and has experienced more benefit from them than she has ever received from any medicine. I can with confidence recommend them to the public."

"I have known Mr Willard Sears for more than thirty years, having resided most of that time in the same town with him, and during that period he has sustained a character without reproach." S. YOUNG.

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mr James Comstock, editor of the Ballston Spa Gazette—"For several years past Mrs Comstock has been afflicted with an unusually obstinate Dyspepsia, attended with a great degree of acidity of the stomach, and redundancy of bile. For several months past she has taken Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, and has experienced more benefit from them than she has ever received from any medicine. I can with confidence recommend them to the public."

"I certify that I have been well acquainted with William Sears, now of the village of Ballston Spa, for more than thirty years. He has through life maintained a fair reputation. His character for truth and general integrity stands high. Indeed I have never heard it impeached." JOHN W. TAYLOR.

Ballston Spa, Oct 6th, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.

Ballston Spa, Oct 3, 1854."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs. Pauline, wife of Hon. Judge Powers of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears' A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint." ANN POWELL.